Hello, this is the Military Health social media team. We just posted this tweet linking to an article encouraging Marines to look out for one another and reaching out for assistance with behavioral health issues. We would be much obliged if you would consider retweeting to get this important message out to a large audience.

“Asking for help will not make you appear weak and/or less of a Marine,”

Studies show thoughts of #suicide among Marines increases around the post-holiday period. @USMC members are encouraged to look out for one another, and treat emotional pain.

My name is Sgt. Jamie Arzola and I manage the Marine Corps' flagship social media platforms along with 10 other Marines. My team and I were wondering if you would allow us to use one of your songs in a short social media post. Maybe this could benefit you by broadening your fanbase a little. Hopefully we get a response before the 31st because we want to use a song in our New Years post which will go out at midnight on the 1st of January. I'm personally a big fan of yours thanks to the H3 Podcast. I wish you blessings wherever you are and a happy New Year.
